MOB DOES ITS WORK QUIETLY AT LONDON

Virgil Bowers, Colored, Hanged to an Old Apple Tree.

He Killed a Wealthy Farmer of Knox County and Got a Life Sentence.

LAST TRIAL ENDED SATURDAY

London, Ky., Oct. 17.—Virgil Bowers, a negro who on Saturday was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of George Farris, a wealthy Knox county lumber merchant, was taken from the jail here shortly after midnight by a mob and hanged to an apple tree in the suburbs.

The mob was of armed, masked men from Knox county and after riding into London last night they forced the jailer to give up the negro. They then hanged him to an apple tree. The negro had been tried twice, the first jury disagreeing. The second was from Rock Castle county, and gave life imprisonment.

BRANCH OFFICE

MR. W. A. DAVIS ESTABLISHES HEADQUARTERS HERE.

He Also Has Opened an Office at Memphis—Paducah Men in Charge.

Mr. W. A. Davis, formerly of Paducah, but now of Chicago, has decided to establish a branch office for his lumber business in Paducah, as well as Memphis. He came to Paducah several days ago, and has completed arrangements to open an office for this section at the Fraternity building, and has everything in readiness to begin business. His local agent will be Mr. Joe Richberger, the well known lumber and mill man.

Mr. Davis will also have an office in room 476, Randolph building, Memphis, and it will be in charge of Mr. J. H. Garrison, of Paducah, who has been a buyer here for Mr. Davis for some time past. Mr. Garrison is preparing to move his family at once to Memphis and take charge.

Mr. Davis' many friends will be pleased to learn that his business is increasing rapidly, and he will probably have to establish other branch offices later. He and his wife leave this evening for Chicago, being unable to remain for the horse show.

AMERICAN GIRLS

HAVE BEEN SOLD IN SLAVERY TO WEALTHY CHINESE.

Government Immigration Bureau Said to Have Located Forty-Nine of Them.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The report of the local immigration bureau discloses today shows that forty-nine American girls are in slavery in Chinese homes. Most of the girls delivered into the hands of their Chinese masters are lost to civilization and can hope for no escape from bondage except by suicide. They were sold to wealthy Chinamen by a woman whose identity is well known to the government authorities.

THE REGISTRATION

Very Light Today, But Republicans Are Leading in All Precincts.

The supplementary registration today in the city has been light but in most of the precincts the Republicans for today have registered four or five to the Democrats' one. Several hundred additional voters had registered today up to press time but many others are expected to register between press time and 9 p. m., especially after supper.

To Have Branch Office in Cairo. J. G. Fisher and F. A. Sinks, electrical contractors, of Paducah, have been in Cairo several days prospecting. They will probably open an office in Cairo which will be in charge of Mr. Sinks. They consider Cairo a good field for their business on account of the many buildings being erected. Cairo Bulletin.

GOES TO MEMPHIS.

Operator Tom Glenn Resigns His Position Here.

Mr. Tom Glenn, who has been day operator in the local south yard for the I. C., has resigned and will go tonight to Memphis to take a position under Mr. H. McCourt, superintendent of Southern lines of the I. C. The new position comes as a promotion to Mr. Glenn who has been a faithful worker for the interests of the I. C. This will necessitate a few changes in the local yard office operating department, but they have not been made public yet.

ONE HOUR ALLOWED.

For Every Voter to Register and Vote—Be Sure and Register.

The law allows every voter one hour from his work, without deducting anything, to register and vote. Every Republican who has not already registered, should do so this afternoon late or tonight before 9 o'clock. There is plenty of time left.

Register before the polls close at 9 p. m.

LIKES THE WORK.

Mr. Toke Owen, Who is On the Look-out, Returns After a Brief Visit.

Mr. Toke Owen, who has been on the U. S. steamer Lookout up Tennessee river, went back up the Tennessee to Danville this morning to resume his duties as inspector.

Mr. Owen states that he is in a territory where there is abundance of game in both fishing and hunting, but that the most plentiful game is wild turkey and it is a fine of $50 to kill one. A great deal of amusement was had over the action of a young laborer on the boat several days ago. He had gone squirrel hunting and seeing three turkeys, shot one and came dragging it into camp. The youth was unaware of the fine and when apprised of its enforcement, kept well to the confines of the boat, not showing himself for several days.

Mr. Owen has been on the boat several weeks and likes the life a great deal. He was formerly a no-lodeman on the Paducah force.

"HOG" QUESTION.

This Will Be Voted on By the People of McCracken.

A question to be settled at the election next month is one of which the town people have heard very little. It is that of allowing the hogs to run at large in the country. The vote is to be taken at the instance of fiscal court, and it has been made to include the city, where there is a municipal stock law.

It is the general belief among residents of the county that the question will carry, and that hogs will have to be kept up after the necessary formalities following the election. Not much interest is taken in the city, but in the county a great deal is being taken.

It was first proposed to make the question apply to stock of all kinds, but finally decided to make it apply to only hogs.

"BLACK HAND" LETTERS

Results in Dynamiting of a House in New York.

New York, Oct. 17.—Following the receipt of two "black hand" letters demanding money under threats of death the grocery store of Giambalvo Bros., on Anthony street, was dynamited early today. The explosion blew out the front of the store and wrecked the store above so violently that the occupants were hurled from their beds. The dynamiter was not found.

MISSING MAN

Found By a Searching Party With Seven Bullet Holes.

Barbourville, W. Va., Oct. 17.—Several days ago Wm. Conley left home on the Guyan Valley branch for the Logan courthouse, and never returned. A searching party formed yesterday and Conley's body was found with seven bullet holes in it. A feud existed between the Conleys and Woodleys and five Woodleys were arrested on suspicion.

Barbourville, W. Va., Oct. 17.—When the family of Wm. Sowards, living on Cabell Creek, returned from church last night it found the home in ashes and the charred remains of Sowards' mother, an aged woman, were also found. It is supposed the fire caught from the stove and the woman was unable to escape.

CARNEGIE HEROES GET THEIR REWARD

Ten Awards Made for Widely Separated Sections.

Brave Nurse Rewarded for Attempting to Save Man From Drowning—$1000 for Children.

OTHER AWARDS TO BE MADE

Pittsburg, Oct. 17.—The Carnegie Hero Fund commission made public last evening the result of its investigation of a large number of cases which were supposed to entitle the participants to recognition under the fund provided by Andrew Carnegie several years ago. Ten awards were made for heroes in widely separated parts of this country and Canada, among them being the following:

Wade H. Plummer, age 15, on July 7, 1904, on Lynch's river, near Lamar, S. C., saved a companion, John M. Gibson, aged 19, from drowning after a desperate struggle. The commission awarded him a silver medal and $600 to be devoted to educational purposes.

Mrs. Sadie L. Crabbe, aged 35, of Cooper's Landing, Va., lost her life on Feb. 11, 1905, while attempting to save from drowning Ralph Young, colored, aged 19 years, a laborer. Mrs. Crabbe is survived by her husband, Charles W., a son aged 9 and three small daughters. The family is very poor. The commission awarded a bronze medal and appropriated $1,000 to be expended by the executive committee as it thinks best for the children.

Miss Anna Margaret Cunningham, aged 20, a nurse at the Savannah hospital, Savannah, Ga., was awarded a bronze medal for her part in the attempt to save from drowning on May 26, 1905, Walker Cutts, age 21, an attorney of Savannah.

THE END NEAR

Only Two New Cases in New Orleans Today.

MOLTEN METAL

Explodes and Kills One and Injures Several Others.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 17.—One is dead, three fatally injured and a half dozen were seriously hurt as a result of a terrific explosion at the Joliet plant of the Illinois Steel company a midnight. A vessel containing several tons of molten metal exploded, throwing the contents over the workmen. Miller Buckner's body was found burned to a crip.

Central City Laundry Burns.

Central City, Ky., Oct. 17.—The Central City Laundry was destroyed by fire. The fire originated in sawdust that was used as packing in the wall. The heat of the stove had charred the sawdust, so that it finally flamed, and the structure being frame, it was soon enveloped in the flames. No insurance was carried, either by the proprietors or those who sent their clothing to laundry, and this being the day on which the delivery was being made, almost every citizen in the town lost something.

An average pocket dairy is an unfinished romance.

CALLED SESSION

Of the Aldermen to Ratify the Telephone Suit Action.

The board of aldermen met this morning in called session at the city hall to ratify the action of the city solicitor bringing suit against the East Tennessee Telephone company to oust it.

It seems that the two boards had never authorized the suit, or if they had, there was no record of it so far as known. The council last night at its regular meeting ratified the action of the solicitor and today the aldermen met in called session at an expense of about $24, to also back up the solicitor.

BRITISH OFFICERS

Captured by Tribesmen Near Tangier, Morocco.

London, Oct. 17.—A dispatch to Central News from Tangier states that the Augheris Tribesmen have captured a number of officers from the British repair ship. Assistance went ashore last week in Tetuan Bay, Morocco. According to reports the officers made a trip inland and were returning to their vessel when attacked and overpowered by Tribesmen, who are said to be practically brigands.

A DUEL TO DEATH ON THE STREETS

Poker Game Causes Tragedy at Tchula, Miss.

Traveling Men Fell Out, Went and Procured Pistols and When They Met Began Shooting.

BOTH MEN WERE KILLED

Tchula, Miss., Oct. 17.—W. A. Spratlin, of Memphis, and Jake Glenn, of Greenwood, Miss., fought a duel on the street here yesterday, both being killed; Glenn instantly and Spratlin dying twenty minutes later.

It was provoked by a poker game. Spratlin accused Glenn of cheating, and Glenn denied it.

"You are a liar and a ———," replied Spratlin.

Glenn told Spratlin that he would have to take back the vile epithets, and Spratlin's answer was, "Go arm yourself and prepare to fight it out."

They both came down the steps of the hotel, talking of their quarrel in ordinary tones. Glenn went to the hardware store and purchased a revolver, and Spratlin returned to his room in the hotel and secured his pistol. They met on the street and Glenn again asked Spratlin to recall his ugly words. There was no menace in his tones that any of the bystanders could detect, but he spoke with determination and with courage to enforce his demand.

Spratlin had his gun out by the time they met and as soon as his antagonist had spoken he began to fire, shooting four times. Each of the bullets struck and death was almost instantaneous. Before he fell he managed to draw his gun and fire twice, inflicting mortal wounds on his slayer. Spratlin handed a friend his private papers, and asked him to telegraph to Mrs. Spratlin in Memphis that he was a dead man.

The bodies were shipped to the homes of the two men, that of Glenn to Portland, Miss., and that of Spratlin to Memphis.

Spratlin was about 50 years of age. He had been here for two weeks selling ditch machines.

Glenn was a citizen of Portland, Miss., and had been traveling for Welter & Co., music dealers and jewelers, of Greenwood, Miss. He was about 25 years of age.

MANY HORSES HERE AND OTHERS COMING

Society Will Turn Out in Force Tomorrow Evening.

Many Other Horses Expected By Tomorrow—Reception at the Palmer Tomorrow Afternoon.

SLIGHT CHANGES IN PROGRAM

Everything is in readiness for the Horse Show, which begins tomorrow evening at the baseball park, and owners of horses have commenced to arrive from surrounding cities in good numbers. The park is ready, the horse show promoters are ready and the public is ready for the grand opening.

Arrivals of horse owners and their stings up to today are: Mr. Gus Coulter, of Mayfield; Mr. Charles Boswell, of Mayfield; Mr. Haley, of Murray; Mr. Bradley, of Murray; and Dr. J. B. Garber with his fine German coach horses from Watska, Ill., representing Ottomann Bros. Other arrivals tonight will be from Golconda, Ill., Cairo, Ill., Bandana, Ky., and Union City, Tenn., and there will be more horses Wednesday. Entries are being made and there are many local horses and out fairs to go into the contests. Mr. Ben Weille says these entries are coming in too slowly and that every person who intends to compete should get his or her name on the books as soon as possible.

There will be a parade of the German coach horses Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

All occupants of carriages are requested to purchase tickets before going to the grounds to avoid confusion at the gates. They can be had at Smith & Nagel's drug store and McPherson's drug store.

Each evening there will be an intermission of twenty minutes about the middle of the night's entertainment.

The boxes and reserved seats are being decorated, the former very elaborately. The reserved seats will be covered to protect nice costumes.

Many beautiful costumes will be worn as a large number of fine dresses have been purchased and there will be beautiful blacks worn by the men. The fad for the three evenings is full reception dress and society will shine at its best.

The committee is anxious for the children's feature Friday evening not to be forgotten. The program is one that will interest every one, and it starts at 7 o'clock.

A special entry has been arranged for Wednesday evening for pacing horses driven singly. This event has been transferred from Friday on account of Mr. Tom Settle, of Paducah, bring here with his fine pacing mare, Mary Gordon. She has a record of one mile in 2:09. There will be several contestants. It is not for speed but for style.

The eighth event of Thursday has been changed to the second and will be for the best single turnout driven by a gentleman, accompanied by a lady, all points considered. The first prize is $10 and the second $5.

The class for decorated vehicles for ladies did not fill and it has been changed to a runabout contest and will be the sixth event on Thursday evening. Each lady driver is to be accompanied by another lady. The prize is a silver cup.

On Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock there will be a big reception in the parlors of the Palmer house for the sponsors and a general invitation to society people is extended, as no written invitations have been issued. Punch will be served and this function will be a very entertaining and beautiful affair.

A full list of those who will occupy the boxes is as follows: Pri-vae, Mr. J. L. Friedman; press, Mr. R. B. Phillips; No. 1, Mr. Hardy; No. 2, Mrs. Frank Ferriman; No. 3, News-Democrat; No. 4, Mr. B. Levy; No. 5, Messrs. Walkerstein and Leob; No. 6, Mr. J. A. Rudy; No. 7, Mr. A. J. Decker; No. 8, Messrs. I. D. Wilcox and Louis Rieke; No. 9, Messrs. John Sherwin, Everett Thompson and Roy Cully; No. 10, Hon. Chas. K. Wheeler; A. Mr. Ben Frank; B. Messrs. Henry Rudy and Herbert Hawkins; C. Mr. W. J. Hill; D. Capt. S. A. Fowler; E. Mr. George C. Wallace; F. Mrs. George Flour-noy; G. Mr. O. L. Gregory; H. Mr. E. P. Noble; I. Mr. Will Rieke; J. Mrs. T. C. Leech; K. Mr. Henry Bradley; L. Mrs. Armour Gardner; Eight more boxes are being made, four of which have been taken. For the other four application should at once be made to D. W. Coons, secretary of the Commercial club.

This afternoon word was received that Mr. F. P. Fitzgerald would be here tonight on the steamer "Arren."

with two fine horses and that the total number coming up on the boat was fifteen.

Several persons have engaged rooms at the Palmer house in advance and Proprietor Charles Reed expects his hostelry to be filled with horse show visitors the next three days. The other hotels will receive their portion of the trade as great crowds of people are expected from the surrounding towns.

Mr. D. A. Meacham, who is advertising the big attraction, returned last night from Hopkinsville and several other places, his trip having covered a period of three days. He says there was considerable talk of the coming event in every town he visited, and there should be hundreds of visitors here during the three days. Today he went down the Cairo division of the Illinois Central to bill the towns on that line to Cairo. This completes his work as the show begins tomorrow.

The final drills will be held tonight and the finishing touches at the baseball park are being put on today. There will be but little to do there tomorrow. The shed for the horses has been finished, also the new boxes in the grand stand.

Mr. Ben Weille has arranged with Dr. S. B. Caldwell for the use of the fair ground stables and all persons entering horses can have the use of them without cost. Several horses are now there and all animals from other cities will probably be taken to this place as it is within easy access to the ball park.

The band stand at Second and Broadway is being erected today.

NOTHING DOING

In Regard to Putting Up Capital for a Cotton Mill.

Secretary D. W. Coons, of the Commercial club, will today call a meeting of a committee to answer a letter written here by capitalists who desire to establish a big cotton mill here and furnish 6 per cent of the capital.

Those interested in such a plant were invited to call at the Commercial club headquarters, but none came and it is the opinion of members of the local club that little if any interest is taken.

The committee meeting will be called to answer the letter. This was an opportunity to secure a big enterprise, but it is presumed those who have the capital do not desire to invest in this way.

LOUISVILLE'S CHIEF.

Will Arrive Today to Be a Guest of Chief Wood.

Fire Chief Tyson, of Louisville, will arrive tonight at 6:40 o'clock to visit Fire Chief James Wood, of this city, during the horse show.

Chief Tyson is an intimate friend of the Paducah chief, they having attended several fire chiefs' meetings during the past several years together. Chief Tyson was always an admirer of the Paducah department and will have an opportunity to see the departments and note what an up-to-date system the city supports.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 17.—The Masonic grand lodge, which meets in Louisville today will be asked to adopt a resolution calling upon the general assembly to appropriate a sufficient sum of money to restore the broken statue of Henry Clay, now standing in the Lexington cemetery. The movement originated among the Lexington lodges upon a resolution which declared that it would be eminently fitting for the Masons to take the initiative. The reasons assigned are that Henry Clay was past master of the Lexington lodge and a past grand master of Kentucky.

RECKLESS RIDERS

Cause Accident on the Broadway Road to John Weitlauf.

Mr. John Weitlauf, of the I. C. shops, was run down yesterday afternoon by a party of horseback riders and slightly injured, and alleges that the horsemen failed to give him any part of the road.

Mr. Weitlauf resides on the Broadway road and was returning home about 5:30 after work. There were about eight persons in the party and all rode abreast. He tried to get off but did not have time, and as he made for the side of the road, one, he claims, urged her horse forward and struck him, knocking him off his wheel. His left elbow was bruised but otherwise he escaped injury.

Weitlauf and other residents of that road say that some of the horsemen who have been practicing for the horse show do not give anyone road rights, and that several accidents have been narrowly averted of late.

CORONER CROW

Coroner Charles Crow did not go across the river yesterday to take charge of the remains of the 12 year old boy who died three weeks ago and whose remains are being held by the father.

Coroner Crow stated that he would go over this afternoon or tomorrow morning and would bring back the body. It is said that the father has threatened to shoot anyone who dares take the body, but Coroner Crow does not intend to be bluffed and will secure the body at all hazards.

Friday Night, "Charles R. Taggart, 'The Man From Vermont.'"
Saturday Matinee and Night, "Parsifal."

A New York telegram says: "Congressman Joseph L. Rhinock, of Kentucky, left the city after having completed a deal whereby the Shubert-Belasco-Fiske combination will get a string of houses in western cities. According to a statement made by Leo Shubert last night, the person most heavily interested in the project is George B. Cox, of Cincinnati. 'I am now building a theater in Cincinnati,' said Shubert, 'the site of the old Heuck opera house, and George B.

Cox, who owns the Walnut-street theatre there, will in future book our attractions. Thus we will have two theaters in Cincinnati, and the company that has been formed will begin work immediately constructing new theaters in Louisville, Minneapolis, Indianapolis, St. Paul, Toronto, Montreal and other cities. Only independent attractions will be booked for these theaters."

"Why Girls Leave Home" was presented to a top heavy house at the Kentucky theater last night, and is a stirring melodrama above the ordinary show of its kind. The audience was fairly large downstairs, and everybody seemed pleased.

The name misled many people and kept them at home. It is not a "tough" show.

Pages have been written in eulogy of the masterly impersonation of "Virginius" as given by that sterling actor, Louis James, who is scheduled to present that masterpiece here. Since 1820, "Virginius" has been played by every heroic actor of note, and notwithstanding the harsh treatment of their hands, yet its construction is so perfect, its theme so human and its motive so ennobling that today it is the most popular Roman tragedy presented to the public.

The north of Spain and in the vicinity of Mt. Salvat stood the Castle of the Holy Grail, or chalice from which the Saviour drank with His disciples at the Last Supper, and in which His blood was received at the cross. The sacred cup was faithfully guarded by a band of pure-minded men known as the Knights of the Holy Grail. Entrance into their circle was much coveted, and one Klingschro aspired to join them, but his application was refused, for the reason that his life was too unholy to permit of ministrations upon the sacred vessel. This, in brief, is the foundation of the legend upon which the great awe-inspiring Parsifal, which will be seen at The Kentucky on Saturday matinee and night, is built. The production, which required a company of fifty people, is under the direction of Messrs. D. L.

gave him one he asked them if they wanted to work for a railroad at $50 a month. They told him they did, and he wanted $4 to secure them the position. They gave him all the money they had, 65 cents, they allege, and told him they would get the balance at home. They made another appointment for later in the day.

HOW IT WAS DONE

CASE AT ST. LOUIS OF PADUCAH-ANS MAY NOT BE STRONG.

The Scheme Netted Sixty-Five Cents and a Call in the Station House.

The trouble in which Robert L. Hawkins, of Paducah, is involved at St. Louis is thus detailed in yesterday's Globe-Democrat:

"William and George Branch, 18 and 15 years old, acted as detectives yesterday to cause the arrest of Robert L. Hawkins, of Paducah, Ky., who, they claim, swindled them out of 65 cents. Leland Barnes, of 925 Morgan street, was arrested on a charge of being an accomplice of Hawkins.

"From newspaper clippings found by the police in Hawkins' pockets it is thought he is wanted in Paducah for jumping a bond. The clippings give accounts of his arrest there on a charge of swindling, and he could not satisfactorily explain to the police what disposition had been made of the case.

"The Branch boys, who live at 1922 Division street, met Hawkins at Tenth and Morgan streets at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He requested a match, and when they gave him one he asked them if they wanted to work for a railroad at $50 a month. They told him they did, and he wanted $4 to secure them the position. They gave him all the money they had, 65 cents, they allege, and told him they would get the balance at home. They made another appointment for later in the day.

Warrants will be applied for today to hold Hawkins until the officials at Paducah can be communicated with."

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 17.—Sam Hise, the man condemned to be hanged here Thursday for criminal assault, made a confession to his mother. He simply said "I did it," but would not go into details.

The nice increase in our business since the first of the year is very encouraging to us.

The most delectable of romantic comedy operas, "The Girl and the Bandit," is to appear here at The Kentucky tomorrow night. The Frank L. Perley Opera company made a most enviable reputation in the piece last season, which was one of the most emphatic successes of the year and which is playing the independent houses. This season Mr. Perley, in pursuance of his well-known policy of seeking to improve his companies, has greatly strengthened the cast. Among the principals are Viola Gillette, Mabel Hite, Frances Ann Wear, Marion Wilder, Joe Miron, Campbell Donald, Sidney Bracy and others. Curtain at 9 o'clock on account of horse show.

PAY CAR HERE.

Distributed Several Thousand Dollars in Paducah Today.

The I. C. pay car arrived this morning from Mounds, Ill., and all local employees in every department were paid off.

The merchants will, as usual, keep open tonight for the accommodation of the railroad trade. The railroad pay car coming just before the horse show will better the patronage of the show, it is thought.

People Hiss the Clansman in South; Play's Author Eludes an Angry Mob

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 17.—Thos. Dixon, Jr., novelist and playwright, escaped mob violence in this city after the performance of his new play, "The Clansman," dealing with negro rule in South Carolina during the reconstruction period, only by locking himself in his room at the hotel. The play had been heartily hissed by the large audience which gathered, and later, when a number of young men, prominent in the social and business life of the city, gathered in front of the hotel with hostile intent and sent up a note, asking the playwright to come down. He suspected their purpose and refused.

Balked in their purpose of doing him bodily injury, the young men drew up a set of resolutions, setting forth in unmistakable terms their opinion of the author and his play, and had them sent up to his room. Dixon said he would give any person $1,000 to point an historical inaccuracy in his play.

In closing his remarks he said that he had always observed two divisions in the south, those who would hiss and those who would applaud the ones who are trying to portray the true ideals of the south. "These were scoundrels then, and there are scoundrels now," he said, pointedly.

Payne's New Discovery

If the stomach and liver are unable to perform their work properly disease follows, which assumes many distressing phases, among these is the appearance of tapeworm, of which a species even infects the liver, causing much anxiety and pain. Payne's New Discovery radically removes this evil.

Extracts from a Sensational Letter.
For three years I had been suffering with my stomach and bowels, with a vile taste in my mouth and a coated tongue; the sight of food made me sick, although I was often ravenously hungry. Taking seven doses from one bottle of PAYNE'S New Discovery a tape worm eight feet long passed from my system. Immediate relief followed. Bloating and distress ceased, appetite returned and I am now strong and hearty.

HORSE SHOW AND BALL

HORSE Show time, with all its attendant festivities, is almost here, and every one will want to be in harmony with the brilliant scene tomorrow night, with its fair women, beautiful horses and rich clothes. Truly it will be an occasion long to be remembered. No store anywhere can show you a more complete and satisfying line of clothing for such an occasion than ours, for our stock is made up of such well known makes as Hackett-Carhart, the College Brand, Hamburger, Heidelberg-Wolf and others, whose reputation for correct clothes making is world-wide. We have all the accessories, too--those little things which mark the well dressed man--such as fancy vests, opera hats, silk hats, dress gloves, riding gloves, ties, handkerchiefs--nothing missing. A magnificent assemblage of the choicest creations in ALL these lines, presenting an immense range to select from. Dress up for this gala occasion. Our superb line of gentlemen's furnishings is now on exhibition and we want to show you through each department, feeling confident you will find no better display or lower prices.

THE NEWEST TUXEDO

For the less formal occasions many men prefer the Tuxedo to the full dress suit. Its so little trouble to "get into" and may be used so many times during a season that viewed merely as an investment it will pay you--pay in the coin of that pleasure which comes from the knowledge that you are tastefully and appropriately dressed.

You would find a Tuxedo almost indispensable. We have a coat and vest faultlessly made by one of the foremost tailoring concerns of the country, which will match your full dress trousers exactly. When you buy evening clothes from us there is no uncertainty about how they are going to look. We guarantee perfection.

We Have a Complete Line of
Full Dress
Requisites
Let us show
You

YOUR FULL DRESS SUIT

Probably that habit of yours of putting things off until "the last minute" has done you a good turn this time, for if you waited too long before seeing your tailor about that new dress suit, you'll be glad if you come to us and let us fix you out now for the Horse Show ball or the next "bid."

A society man always has use for a full dress suit--and particularly is this the case during the fall and winter social season. Dinner parties, weddings, balls and receptions bring the dress suit constantly into play. Ours are absolutely correct in every detail of fabric, fit and finish. Let us show you. The prices will surprise you.

HORSE SHOW HATS

You have probably seen our Horse Show Hat, for many of them are being worn. All the fellows who are going just in their "every-days" should wear one. Its the swellest fall hat shown in Paducah for many a day. Come in and get you one. We have all the good kinds of silk and opera hats, too.

RIDING CLOTHES

Did you ever stop to think how difficult it must be to make a suit of riding clothes--make them swagger in appearance? There is not a single inharmonious line in a suit of our Riding Clothes and they are made from the fabrics that wear, and wear well, too. Come and get you a suit for the Horse Show.

HORSE SHOW FADS

For the knowing ones who are always on the lookout for something new and timely we have chosen a handsome line of Crops, Horse Show Hat Bands and other "horsey" things. Everything you will need for this occasion in the way of men's furnishings can be found at our store. Come and see.

The Paletot...

If you would be "the glass of fashion and the mould of form" you should by all means have a Paletot Coat. It has character and dignity and, in our line, there is that touch of the "hand-tailored"--a made-for-you-appearance--that stands the scrutiny of the most expert tailor. Most tailors hesitate about attempting a Paletot, for its elegant simplicity is hard to attain. But our coats are tailored by men who are educated to please the most fastidious. You have no idea how this coat would blend with your evening clothes.

$15.00 to $35.00

That McHurdle Full Dress Shirt

Its simply amazing how uncomfortable a little thing like a "bulge" in a shirt front can make you and how it will detract from your appearance. Any old kind of white shirt won't do for full dress if you want to feel really well dressed. The McHurdle is eminently correct. See them.

The Topper

There is more in a Top Coat than a few yards of cloth cut and sewn together--much more. It is a something, however, which may be defined by a single word--individuality. And in buying your clothes you should face the fact that it is individuality which counts, for it makes the "first impression;" details are observed later. Our coat building is governed by these principles. Not alone in the building, but every detail is looked after. No coat in a young man's wardrobe is so useful or attractive for general wear as a topper. Our line is complete. Let us show you.

Daily Thought.

Great occasions do not make heroes or cowards; they simply unveil them to the eyes of men.—Westcott.

Circuit Judge Reed has intimated that he believes the bitulithic contract valid, although he will wait to hear additional authorities. If Judge Reed ultimately decides the contract binding, it will be consistent with good sense and the wishes of the people. Courts do not often allow trivial flaws and technicalities to overthrow the will of the people nowadays. The contract was made in good faith, after a majority of property owners it is claimed, asked for bitulithic material. This material is indorsed by some of the best men in Paducah, who went to other cities and inspected it there and who want it in front of their own property. The few blocks of it here cannot be taken as fair samples, because they were constructed under adverse conditions. The contractors admit it is not a good job, and have asked for no pay. They say they will ask and expect nothing until the work is done right, which is a fair enough proposition for fair men. In the absence of any valid reason for the city's attempting to repudiate the contract, it will be good news to fair minded people when the contract is sustained. Paducah should have profited by her humiliating experience a few years ago, in trying to repudiate city bonds on a technicality. Fair, honest men should uphold a fair, honest obligation, and not let technicality of law or technicality of the contract.

there is no reason the city shouldn't be.

The board of public works is right in asserting its authority. The charter gives to the board control of the streets, market house and light plant. It has tried to act in harmony with the remainder of the administration but its path has not been strewn with roses since it was discovered that it would not be dominated by the mayor, as the other boards are. The legislative boards have attempted, and not without success, to block a number of good things essayed by the board of works, and as it has usually been to the detriment of the public, it is high time it were decided who's who, and what's what. When the show down comes, it will probably be found that the general council has nothing to do with the streets except to pass necessary improvement ordinances, and allow money for street work after the work has been accepted by the board of works.

The most important thing to the Democrats about the next legislative election is the election of a United States senator. Most of the Democratic nominees in the state have come out for one or the other of the senatorial candidates. The Democratic nominee in McCracken county has not. The Democrats do not know whom he will support for United States senator if elected. It is about time they were finding out.

Thomas Dixon, Jr., had to immerse himself in his hotel at Columbia, S. C., after the presentation of his new play, "The Clansman," to keep from being roughly handled by a mob. Thomas should know better. In a case like that he should have been content with long distance information about how the play was received. In South Carolina you can never tell just how they are going to take a thing.

The real motives that actuate Paducah officials in many of their official acts are not often hard to find. At the right time the real cause of the present crusade against one of the telephone companies for "defying" the city, will be properly shown up.

Never mind, in all probability there will be some new faces in the legislative boards after the first of the year, and the amateur statesmen and repudiationists can retire to private life, for which they are evidently better suited than for public life.

Paducah is growing, but it could grow faster, and would grow faster if progressive men could run it. We can never make much progress with a tax rate that discourages owning property by making it almost unprofitable to own it.

It is becoming plainer and plainer every day that the city is being run principally in the interest of a few people, and every official act of some of the crowd betokens some personal advantage to be gained, or some axe to grind.

The great Japanese-Russian war has now ended to the minutest detail, and it was not without its lesson. Most of the great wars of the future, paradoxically speaking, will no doubt be bluffs.

The polls remain open until 9 o'clock tonight. All Republicans should register by that time.

GROWING UP

There's something the matter with the child that fails to grow up. A child that grows up too much, however, without proper filling out of flesh, is almost as badly off. Nothing will help these pale, thin "weedy" children like Scott's Emulsion. It supplies the rounding out of flesh and the rich inward nourishment of blood and vital organs which insures rapid growth a healthy and uniform development.

Renaker and Hargis.

Two typical Democrats of the period have we in the Hon. E. K. Renaker, of Harrison, and the Hon. James Hargis, of Breathitt, says the Louisville Herald. The Democratic committee of Harrison asked Mr. Renaker to resign the nomination for state senator, given some months ago, because he has been since found guilty of defaming a young lady, and assessed there for in the sum of $3,500 damages. Mr. Renaker refusing to comply with the request of the county committee, the matter went up to the district committee, which sustained Renaker; but as Renaker is a Blackburn man, the matter will, of course, go up to the state central committee, of which James Hargis is a member, and Renaker will be unanimously run over. The Danville Advocate has this to say of Renaker's case:

"The action of the district committee is not in accord with popular sentiment, nor in the best interests of the party. As Mr. Renaker has been pronounced guilty, after a fair trial in the courts, of defaming the character of a young woman, and this will impair, if not destroy, his usefulness as a public servant."

The Breathitt News then takes the floor. The few words it has to say are eloquent, significant and unanswerable:

"As far as court records show, Renaker is an angel by the side of Jim Hargis, who claims to have the Democratic nomination for county judge of this county. Jim Hargis stands indicted in the Fayette circuit court for the murder of James Cockrill, under which indictment he was held in the Lexington jail nearly two months without bail, during which time he was given a trial which resulted in a hung jury after which he was allowed bail in the sum of $25,000, which is still against him."

"A Clay county jury returned a verdict against him for $8,000 in favor of Mrs. J. B. Marcum for damages for the murder of her husband, which judgment still stands."

"He stands at the bar of public opinion charged with other crimes unbecoming a nominee for any office. Did the Democratic party nominate him?"

Hargis is not only the Democratic candidate for county judge of Breathitt, he is state central committeeman of his party for the Tenth district. Any Democratic requests for his withdrawal from either or both places? Plenty, but Hargis is a power in machine circles. He does as he "damns please." He is more sinned against than sinning, says the machine organ at Frankfort. He is, though not an angel, a good Democrat, echoes the Somerset Journal. The machine Democrats of Lexington wine him and dine him every time he beats the law. He is too strong in machine councils for any official notice to be taken by the party organization of his notorious unfitness for party trust or party honors. An angel, in truth, is Renaker beside the Calligula of Breathitt.

A McDougall Kitchen Cabinet

Is the most economical article of kitchen equipment that you can buy. You would as soon think of doing without a McDougall Kitchen Cabinet as you would think of doing without a good kitchen range, after you have used them both. Each has its particular field in the kitchen; both are necessary in a well-regulated home; neither is expensive when you consider the results obtained.

A McDougall Kitchen Cabinet costs no more than the kitchen range and it does many things the range never could do.

First of all, it saves you hundreds of steps every day. It will also enable you to get a meal in about half the time it now takes, and besides this it will help you to economize on food supplies by keeping everything fresh, pure and clean.

There are many styles of McDougall Kitchen Cabinets ranging in prices from $15.75 to $54.00. You can see a complete display of these cabinets neatly trimmed with dishes, kitchen utensils and food supplies, by calling at this store and asking for the McDougall Kitchen Cabinet display.

Should you desire, you can arrange to have one of these cabinets sent to your own home on 30 days' trial, with the understanding that your money will be refunded should the cabinet fail to please you for any reason whatsoever.

the chief engineer in regard to the matter. The war department officials manifested a disposition to expedite the work as much as possible but nearly all the dredges now stationed on the Ohio river are expected to be used in the Mississippi river improvement, but it is believed that several dredges will be worked between Evansville and Louisville.

MORE CHANGES
N., C. & ST. L. AND IRON MOUNTAIN HAVE AGREEMENT.

The Illinois Central May Later Make An Agreement at Hickman.

The interchange of business between the N., C. and St. L. railway and the Iron Mountain at Hickman, Ky., by river transfer, has resulted in a probability of an extension being built from Charleston, Mo., to a point directly opposite Hickman. The Iron Mountain is about to take advantage of a large bonus offer from the little town of Henson, located between Charleston and Columbus, Ky., and is surveying a branch to Hickman, on which it will soon begin construction.
This will give an even more direct route to St. Louis than the road now has, the only drawback being the river transfer. There is a very considerable interchange of freight between the roads at Hickman now, and with the running of the branch line fast passenger trains can be operated by that route to St. Louis, if on opening a line of its own into Nashville the Illinois Central is disposed to cancel the present traffic arrangements with the N., C. and St. L. at Martin. Very liberal treatment is expected, however, from the I. C., and it is thought there will be no trouble in operating the "Dixie Flyer" as at present.

Telephone Etiquette.
Somebody suggests that there is a lively necessity for a book on the etiquette of the telephone. There may be some truth in the suggestion. The books that cover the ordinary social usages are deficient in this telephone particular. There are people an fait in the etiquette of the society function, the etiquette of the table and of the calling card, who seem to quite forget the laws of good breeding when communicating through the vibrating wire. And when this proposed book of etiquette is written it is to be hoped it will deal but lightly with the mere veneer of the usage, but rather with its moral and charitable requirements. For some telephone users the instrument is but a vent for irritability. If the response is slow they fret, if they get the wrong number they fume, if the line is busy they flare up. For such nervous users the new book of etiquette should be especially designed. Nor can it overlook those other offenders against ordinary good manners, the people who deliberately keep you waiting, the man who snarls at the exchange operators, the butter-in on the party line, the woman who listens to talk that is not intended for her hungry ears, the people who shout or mumble, or stutter, or wheeze. For all of these the volume will be timely, and should—if they can be prevailed upon to peruse its hints and its warnings—be conducive to a most agreeable reformation for both ends of the line.

Of course there is a host of users of the line to whom a book of etiquette on the subject would be of less value than so much waste paper. For they realize that the true etiquette of the phone is largely comprehended in these three pleasing attributes, patience, cheerfulness and a clear enunciation.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

T. Mack, Colored, Charged With Abusing His Mother.

The Cutting Case Against Ed Cloonan Called and Continued Until Next Thursday.

SOME MINOR COURT NEWS.

Falling memories are very conspicuous in police court at times, and a typical case was discovered this morning when T. Mack, colored, was arraigned for drawing a knife on his mother and sister and chasing them out of the house by threats to kill them.

Mack failed to remember that he had cursed at all, and as to the razor or knife matter, the mother and sister couldn't remember that he had one. The mother explained that her son would work a while and then spend his money for whiskey, which generally brought on a period of abuse for the mother and daughter.

The mother had a badly swollen hand and explained that this was injured when she struck her son with a broomstick. "You see, judge," she explained, "I was not feeling well when he came home, so might have beaten him up pretty soundly, but as it was I was able to do no more than get in a lick or two with the broom."

Judge Sanders continued the case in order to get at the facts and will see that Mack goes to work, or to jail for vagrancy.

Ed Cloonan, the young man accused of maliciously cutting Harry Allen, was granted a continuance until Thursday on account of the absence of witnesses. Dr. Horace Rivers was heard this morning, he testifying as to the wound.

Jim Scott, colored, who used abusive language towards B. A. Davidson, an insurance agent, was fined $20 and costs.

KENTUCKY NEWSLETS

Reduction Still Forthcoming.
Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 17.—The promised reductions in the freight rates has not been granted to the Owensboro shippers. The agreement with Traffic Manager Campion, of the Louisville and Nashville, who is acting also for Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis, and Illinois Central roads, was made on September 28, and it was understood that the reductions to the Owensboro shippers would be made within two weeks. No definite answer can be obtained by the Owensboro shippers from the railroad officials as to whether or not the rates will be reduced, putting Owensboro practically on the same basis with Evansville and Louisville. It is said that an injunction suit will be brought by the Owensboro shippers to prevent the railroads from collecting higher rates than were agreed to at the Louisville conference. However, the local shippers have only a verbal agreement with Mr. Campion.

Blazing Box Car in Train.
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 17.—With a blazing box car in the middle of a long string of cars, north-bound train No. 180, on the Illinois Central railway, pulled rapidly into the Louisville yards Sunday morning, and but for the activity of the crew the whole train would have been destroyed. The car, which belonged to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and carried about $1,000 worth of assorted clothing consigned to Louisville merchants, was discovered to be on fire just before the yards were reached. It is supposed it ignited from sparks. As soon as the discovery was made orders were given to make all speed into the yards, and without losing a moment of time the car was shunted to an isolated track. The blaze damaged the car loss than $1,000. The cargo was a total loss.

MANY PEOPLE WERE

Grace Episcopal Parish House
Formally Opened.

The Building Is of Beautiful Architecture—The Rooms Were Crowded Until 11 p. m.

SEVERAL NOTABLE GUESTS

The formal opening of the parish house of Grace Episcopal church last evening was a very delightful occasion, and the rooms were crowded with visitors from 8 to 11 o'clock. The vestry of the church and Rev. David C. Wright received in the Guild Hall on the first floor, which was attractively decorated with palms, ferns and flowers. Here an orchestra played during the evening, and the Grace Church Guild served delightful frappe. The Right Reverend Charles E. Woodcock and Archdeacon M. M. Benton, of Louisville, were the guests of honor and added much to the interest of the evening. On the second floor, where are the parlor and kitchen, the ladies of the Friends Society served hot coffee and sandwiches. The members of the Rector's Aid, Friends Society and the Grace Church Guild all assisted in welcoming and entertaining the visitors.

The new parish house is of brick and is a very handsome and complete structure and meets a much-felt need in the church. In architecture it corresponds to the church building with which it is connected. It has an entrance from the street through a Gothic brick portico as well. On the first floor are the Guild hall where the Sunday school, Lenten services, etc., will be held, the infant class room, and the choir room. These are all attractively finished in weather oak, the ceilings being a wooden beamed finish stained to correspond and the walls of rough plaster, giving a quaint and attractive aspect to the interior. These rooms were furnished by the Sunday school and the Rector's Aid societies. In the infant class room is a small portable organ that was given by the Grace Church Guild. The choir room has lockers of the weather oak for the choir vestments.

On the second floor is the parlor which is quaintly furnished in the old mission furniture. This has the mission mantel and a tall grandfather's clock. On the wall are photographs of noted European cathedrals the gifts of members of the congregation. The parlor is most attractive and was furnished entire by the Grace Church Guild who have worked nobly for the parish house. The kitchen which is also, on the second floor was furnished by the Friends Society, who got out the "Paducah New Cook Book" to meet this work. It is most complete with a gas range, and all the utensils for cooking, while the China cupboards hold six dozen of everything needed to serve a supper.

Mrs. T. U. Dudley, of Louisville, has ordered from New York a picture of her husband, the late Bishop Dudley of Kentucky to be presented to the parish house. It was expected for last night but did not arrive. It is a greatly appreciated gift for Bishop Dudley was much identified with the church here and endeared to the people.

The architect of the building Mr. William Brainerd, and the contractor Mr. Harry George, received many congratulations during the evening on their artistic work.

$50 or $15

There are sixty-two grades of horsehair (?) used for mattresses. Could you tell them apart? Don't you have to go partly by the reputation of the dealer, but chiefly by the price he asks--$50 for his "best?"

Curled hair--the former style of mattress material--comes to the market in bales of mixed origin; from asses, cows and pigs, mingled with the manes and tails of dead horses. Hair gathers dust, harbours vermin, absorbs moisture, and often contains germs of pestilential diseases (absolute proof of this sent on request); gets lumpy and has to be frequently picked over. Isn't it a satisfaction when buying to know that there is a guarantee behind the

Ostermoor Mattress $15.00

—always good; better than the best hair mattress can be; you don't have to be an expert, for the trade mark is sewn on the end of every genuine Ostermoor.

The Ostermoor is pure in its origin, and is further purified in our patented process of manufacture into airy, interlacing, fibrous Ostermoor sheets of great elasticity, moisture proof and vermin proof. These sheets are laid into the tick--the result is a mattress which is built, not stuffed; which will keep its shape and uniform thickness and never needs making over, though the tick can easily be removed for washing.

BUSINESS MEN MET AT METROPOLIS

Will Perfect an Organization Next Monday There.

A New Cigar Company Organized—Races for Magistrate and Constable Warming Up.

OTHER METROPOLIS NEWS

Metropolis, Ill., Oct. 17.—Next Monday evening, Oct. 23, an adjourned meeting of the Business Men's Association will be held at the city hall for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee on constitution and by-laws, and for the transaction of other business to further put the organization on a solid and permanent basis. Metropolis is sadly in need of just such a move on the part of her representative business men that she may build up and retain her present business.

The Corlis Cigar company is the latest new industry for Metropolis. It has secured quarters in the vacant McCauley property, one door above entrance to the State hotel and will commence business in a few days. The incorporators are: Edwin Corlis, president and treasurer; George L. Coles, of St. Louis, vice-president; Thirft Corlis, secretary; G. A. Davis, foreman. The new firm purchased the business of G. A. Davis Saturday and will commence operations with at least seven employees, to be increased later by from four to six. In Mr. Edwin Corlis the firm has one of the oldest tobacco and cigar men in this end of the state, being prominently identified with the cigar business for over thirty years.

The Benton school has twenty pupils who were given awards for being neither absent or tardy during September. Lizzie Duncan is teacher and is proud of her school's record.

The race for the offices of magistrate and constable is warming up. Some new candidate for one or the other place is almost daily letting the people know how bad his friend want him to run.

Paul Mulkey has secured an excellent place with the Westinghouse company of Pittsburgh. Mr. Mulkey will endeavor to perfect himself in civil and electrical engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Roberts have returned from a several months' trip through the west, including a visit to the Portland exposition.

Mrs. Charles Kennedy has returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Greenville, Miss.

Mrs. George W. Richard and little daughter, Miss Carrie, of Anna, are visiting the family of Mrs. Richard's son, Jesse, foreman of the Metropolis Steam Laundry.

Clerk Charles Howard has gone to Cairo to accept a position as clerk on the Rees Lee.

Mrs. Samuel Atwell and Mrs. Henry Schroder have gone to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend the winter. Will Atwell accompanied them and will stay several weeks.

Mrs. Sallie Roache has returned to her home in St. Louis, after visiting with relatives here and Paducah.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Registration Prevents Session Today—Judge Reed to Decide Street Contract Valid.

There was no circuit court today on account of the supplementary registration.

Yesterday there were several minor matters acted on in court, and Judge Reed read his opinion in the ex parte suit brought by the city to test the validity of the city ordinance providing for the reconstruction of Jefferson street and Kentucky avenue, which also will settle the validity of the contract held by the Southern Bitulithic company.

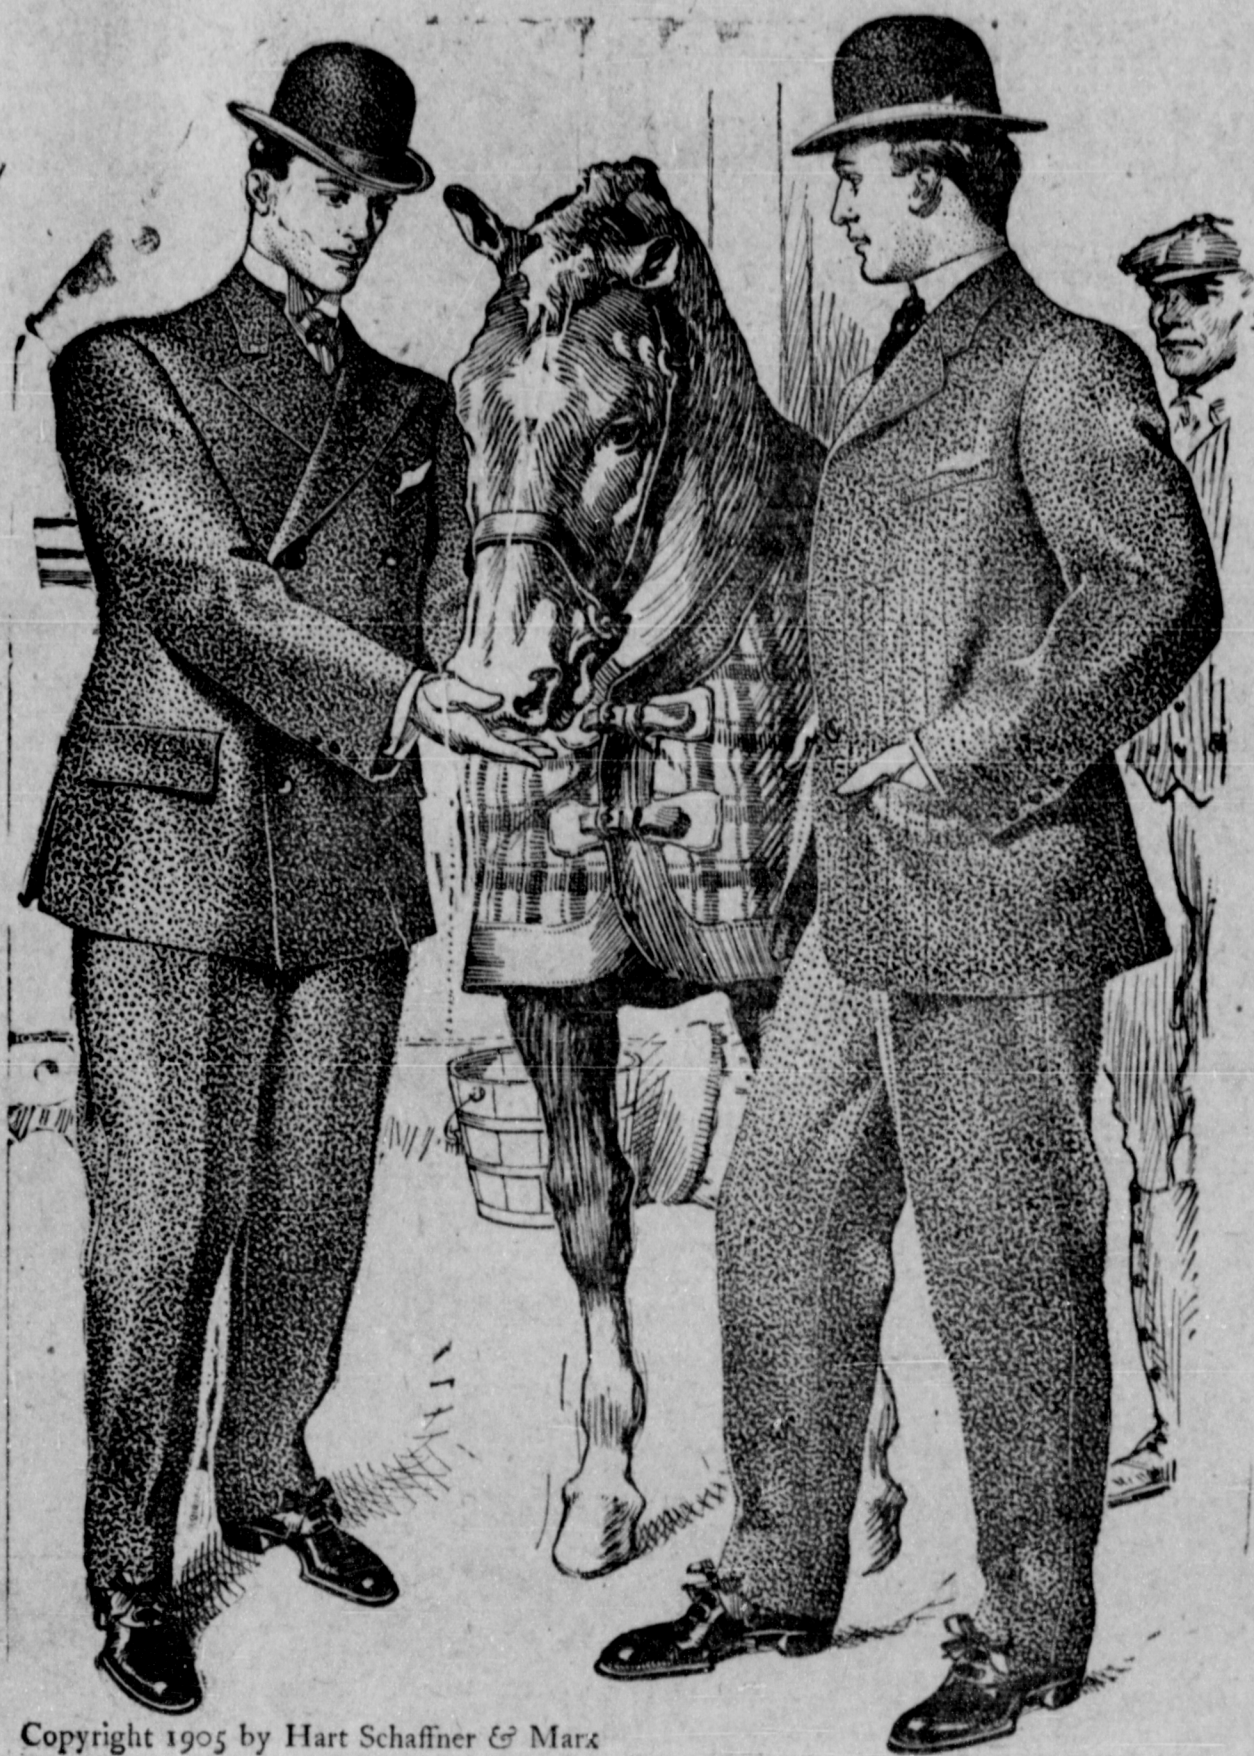

Judge Reed held that the ordinance and the contract were valid but withdrew his opinion on request of Solicitor James Campbell who desires to be heard further. Judge Reed announced he would hear the additional authorities this week.

Killed By Eating Poison.

Hazard, Ky., Oct. 17.—Two miles below here, on Second Creek, two children of Jason Connett, a veterinarian, were killed by swallowing corrosive sublimate. Their father used the poison in his business and on getting a hurried professional call left some of the poison on the floor of his bedroom. The children, thinking it was sugar, ate a large quantity of it and died a few moments afterward. Marion Combs, a neighbor, who chanced to call in about the time, also took a taste of the poison, and at last accounts was in a serious condition.

Mrs. Muggins—My husband never plays the races. He has conscientious scruples. Mrs. Muggins—Neither does mine. He has common sense.
